

Sabina's Guide to Hamburg.

Don't forget to REVIEW my tour on Google search: SANDEMANs NEW Europe - Hamburg

FOR PRIVATE TOURS

sabina@rabbl.org

tours.rabbl.org

Bars

- Sofa Bar: Make yourself very comfy on the antique sofas, relaxing vibes, nice music. Don't be too late, it fills up fast!

-Clouds: get amazed by the stunning rooftop cocktail bar overlooking the famous Reeperbahn.

-The Rabbithole: Brown walls, dark wooden floors, perfect light moods, simple British colonial style

-Jupi Bar: Pay what you think is fair bar.. sounds too good to be true. Well it exists. Not just a regular bar, but a bar with a concept. Don't abuse the idea and pay accordingly :)

Boat-trips

- Boat 62: Boarding at Pier 3. Leaves every 15 minutes until midnight. Aprox length of the journey is 1 hour.

(FREE if you have a public transport day-ticket / 2,40EUR for one time trip)

-Boat 73: Take a look at the working part of the harbour. The ferry line from Pier 1 to Ernst-August lock and has 4 stations. Runs only on weekdays

(FREE if you have a public transport day-ticket / 2,40EUR for one time trip)

Interesting places

-Gängeviertel: old houses + street art

-Altona - used to be a thriving Danish city of its own

-Sternschanze: counter-cultural centre of the city.

-Blankenese: winding alleys, captains' homes, mansions and river views

Viewing-points

-Elbtunnel: Walk down and over through the old tunnel from 1911 under the river Elbe. The perfect postcard skyline view awaits for you on the other side. (FREE)

-Elbbrücken: Just get on the line U4 to the new terminus Elbbrücken. There you can expect spectacular views of the Elbphilharmonie, Michel and Elbe. Best sunset views over the river (FREE if you have a public transport day-ticket / 2,40EUR for one time trip) enjoy!

Thinkgs to do for FREE

-Botanical Garden (Tropenhaus): Great for a cold rainy day, get inside the tropical garden and enjoy the wormth while wandering and learning about plants around the globe.

-Light Show: Daily between 11am and 6pm on each hour, the platform at the underground train station starts a spactacle of light and music. Stop U4 HafenCity Universität

-Fish Market: Sundays 7-10am. The hall opens early in the morning to welcome everyone. You will find all you need and don't need; from beer and fish to live rock bands and fruit baskets.

-BUS 111: the sightseeing bus lineno Hamburg sight. From Altona, it's along the Elbe towards HafenCity. great view of the container port, Reeperbahn and much more

FOOD

VEGAN

- HappenPappen: Vegan made with love
- Pizza Bande : Vegan pizza to die for
- Loving Hut: All vegan Vietnamese food

INTERNATIONAL

- Bird - New York style bar & kitchen
- BOK Asia- Southeast Asian
- KOMBÜSE- Mexican

GERMAN

- Gröninger: Traditional German beer brewery
- Oma's Apotheke - Traditional German comfort food
- Zum Brandanfang - Traditional Hamburg style cuisine

FISH

- Underdocks: modern twist on old classics
- Karofisch: the best fish in Hamburg (cantina style)

HAMBURGERS:

- Dulf's Burger
- Vincent Vegan

NOTE: most places in Hamburg have vegetarian and vegan options

Non Permanent Entertainment

- Hamburger DOM: an amusement park that comes to town 3 times a year. Food, fun and fantasy. With a firework every friday at 10.30pm

Open:

November 8th - December 8th
March 27nd - April 26th
June 24th - July 24th

-Ice-skating: The biggest outdoor rink in Europe. Besids ice-skating, enjoy hot chocolate and warm snaks. In one of the most beautiful parks the city has to offer.

Open: November 3rd - March 15th (10:00-22:00)
entry: Adult 6EUR +5 EUR shoe rental
Student/child: 4,50EUR

